SOME OF THE
OUR TOURISM
INDUSTRY
PROJECTS

JUNE 2018

One of our most interesting projects for the tourism industry was the translation from English to Chinese of a business plan for the Economic and Culture Office of an East Asian state.

The document depicted the importance of building new touristic facilities in the US for immigrants and travelers, showcased the financial structure for it, and who would be involved in the project, among other things.

Such a detailed
business strategy
required translators
familiar with tourism, but also
with economics,
finance, and
business.
